

Founded and actively operating since 1964, Rematech division BreMO is specialized in the application and distribution of industrial vulcanized products. Rematech BreMO is a leader in conveyor belts and is particularly close to its customers. With many branches all over the province of Quebec, Rematech BreMO caters to diversified industrial businesses looking to achieve efficient plant productivity.

<http://www.rematechbremo.com>

In order to ensure quality service to our customers, we are looking for a dynamic candidate to be a:

Vulcanization technician
(Amos branch)

Your daily activities consist of installing and vulcanizing conveyor belts and rubber components at different customer locations. The candidate needs to prove himself to be independent, responsible and available, have the social skills in order to properly communicate with the client and ready to take the responsibility of the vulcanizing job.

The minimum requirements are to possess a high school diploma or significant experience in industrial jobs and the availability to quickly answer to our customer's needs.

If you possess the required career profile and you're looking for the employment challenge offered by this position, please send us your curriculum vitae, with the position and branch location that interests you :

REMATECH DIVISION BREMO

A/S Caroline Kéroack

Human Ressources department

214, route 138

St-Augustin-de-Desmaures, Qc., G3A 2X9

☎ 418-878-2288

📠 418-878-4070

✉ emploi@rematechbremo.com